Grow with the Friends!

For many years, the Friends of the Milton Public Library have been comprised of dedicated volunteers whose generosity and commitment have helped create outstanding programs, events, and opportunities for our library and the community. We are grateful for the strong foundation they have built. Now, we're looking to grow our membership and welcome new Friends! Whether you can volunteer occasionally, help with events, share your ideas, or simply support the library's mission, your involvement makes a difference.
